

Gatherings Newsletter of L/L Research

June 18, 2008

The day lilies are in glorious bloom in Camelot's yard and the Channeling Intensive 2 attendees are home again, after completing another series of channeling circles and study sessions together. We again had 13 attendees, just not the same ones. We welcomed three new circle members, as we bade farewell to three Channeling Intensive 1 attendees who decided that channeling was not for them.

Channeling Intensives

The new members had worked hard to catch up with the rest of the circle. They listened to the teaching sessions which I offered to CI-1 before they came here for a make-up weekend and then during that weekend, we discussed all that they had heard. We also worked through the various visualizations involved in practicing the tuning process. They fit into the circle beautifully and we had a terrific Gathering. If you wish to read these teaching sessions from CI-1, they are being collected in the Library on www.llresearch.org under the heading, "Homecomings and Gatherings".

We will also soon have the Channeling Circle sessions from both CI-1 and CI-2 up in the Library under "Transcripts." You can navigate through them just as you can through the Ra sessions. In our first two Channeling Intensives, we as a group have created five Channeling Circle sessions. We look forward to gathering for Channeling Intensive 3 in November 2008, in order to study further and continue to produce more Channeling Circle sessions.

Public Meditations

Our regular weekly study and meditation meetings are in hiatus for the summer. Our next channeling meditation will be the second Saturday in September at 8:00 p.m. EDT. We will meet each week there after, except for 5th Saturdays, through May 2009. Channeling meditations are on second and fourth Saturdays, while silent meditations are held on first and third Saturdays. Whenever your travel plans allow, please come and join us for one of these meetings.

BBS Radio

If you would like to hear us on the internet radio, go to www.bbsradio.com for the live broadcasts at 10:00 p.m. PDT, with a re-broadcast on Sunday mornings. They also have archives of the channeling sessions we have aired on their station in the past.

Homecoming 2008

Now we are setting our sights on Homecoming 2008, which will be held here at Camelot on August 29th through September 1st, 2008. We are creating this Homecoming using the topics which the attendees choose to discuss. Each attendee will have a chance to bring up the issue in his own spiritual progress which is of central interest to him. The presentation by each attendee can be a single sentence of 25 words or less, a short discussion or a full presentation. From these topics, chosen beforehand, we will create the schedule of study for the Gathering. Where appropriate, I will supply some quotes from our channeling archives which address these questions and issues. It should be a fascinating time. The attendance is filling up fast, so please send in your reservation as soon as possible, and also let us know what topic you'd like the group to discuss.

It will be a wonderful Homecoming! I know that in advance, since the Confederation material draws together birds of a feather! Conversations start early and go late, since people finally have someone to talk to about the things that interest them. The fee is $160, unchanged for the last three years, plus a food charge which reflects the actual grocery bill for our breakfasts and soup-and-sandwich luncheons here at Camelot. We will have the curriculum up on site as soon as we have enough information from our Homecoming attendees. For further information about this workshop, please visit the home page of our website www.llresearch.org.

Williamsburg, Virginia

From October 3 – 5, 2008, we will be taking L/L Research on the road to Williamsburg, Virginia, where we will offer a Gathering devoted to talking about the new paradigm. It will be two full days of focusing on how to welcome and cooperate with the coming shift in consciousness in 2012. Our "Cruise Director" Bob R. is working closely with us to get all of the details together. So far it seems that we will likely have another speaker or two and the venue itself will be in or in close proximity to Colonial Williamsburg.

It is not too soon to reserve your place there, if that topic appeals to you, or if you would like to study amidst such richly historic treasures as that city holds. We'd love to see you! I will be speaking and singing and of course, the attendees themselves will be teaching me right back! Come and be a part of it!

Have a wonderful summer! On behalf of the L/L Crew – Gary, Jim, Romi and Melissa – I wish you a wonderful summer!

British Law of One Study Group (NEXT MEETING, JULY 6TH!)

Headed by Ian Bond bond.ian@talktalk.net and

Pupak Haghighi hoopoesong@gmail.com

“Our group meets once a month, usually on a Sunday, we spend part of our time reading parts of 'Law of One' material, or some of the Q'uo transcripts. We then share a meal together, which everyone contributes to. If time allows we might go for a walk if it's not raining too heavily (it's England here). In the later part of the day we focus on our personal seeking which begins with a period of silent meditation after which we do a round robin sharing, then ask what is it that we are seeking, each individually and as a group. We call upon and ask the collective group intelligence to address our seeking and usually the response we get through our collective reflection is profound and often satisfying!”

(901) 377-6468

“We have public meetings the first Sunday of every month at 2 PM. While the subject matter is centered around the Law of One material, we do diversify the source of our information, using the RA material as the touch stone to put it all into perspective. Individuals with experience in other areas of spiritual study are welcome to share their information with the group. We feel this broadens the understanding of all who attend the meetings.”

Literra Law of One Study Group

Spring Green, WI

Literra@merr.com

“The Spring Green (Wisconsin) Law of One Study Group hosted by Jim and Maxine Pfefferkorn:

The monthly meeting (usually for 4 hours on a Sunday afternoon) format starts with a brief meditation, followed by introductions, then opening the floor for discussion of anything attendees wish to explore pertaining to the Law of One, and sometimes Jim will lead us in covering some material from his workbook "The Soul and The Creation, based on the Law of One," (which is available for $20 plus shipping). We break halfway for some munchies and beverages folks have brought. Socializing during the break is heartwarming and a highlight of the gathering. We reconvene and continue with more discussion and close by gathering in circle and chanting "OM."

The fellowship has been the most important and fun for the folks who have attended."
