Memorial Day is past, our veterans have been thanked and honored and the gentlemen and ladies have started their engines, and, at length, turned them off again. And so we welcome summertime! The season of baseball and cook-outs, tanning lotion and sunshine is ready to rock us through the warm-weather months.

Homecoming 2009

Coming up at summer's end is our Annual Homecoming! Happening September 4 – 7, 2009, Homecoming (see picture of last year's Homecoming to the right) is always a wonderfully fulfilling time of reunion with serious seekers of harmonious vibrations and all kinds of good energy. Since the format of having each attendee choose a subject for discussion or presentation was such a success last year, we will have the same attendee-driven menu of study topics this year.

Here's the way that works: Each person attending will choose a topic to discuss, if he likes. It is possible to come and enjoy the event without picking a topic. If you choose a topic you may also choose your level of involvement in the presentation of it. You may make your own presentation. You may make a short presentation and then turn the topic over to the group for general discussion. Or you may request the topic. Carla will find study quotes from the L/L Research Library archives of channeling sessions – and we're off!

Great company, good food, beautiful Kentucky weather and that indefinable energy that always happens when people who have been brought together by their appreciation of the Confederation channeling come together – who could ask for more!

We'll be meeting in the Camelot gardens, under a canopy, again this year, with comfortable chairs and a bonfire in the evenings. We will have two days of planned study and one free-wheeling day for those who can stay, where we compose our curriculum on the spot! To reserve your seat, write Gary at contact@llresearch.org.

Channeling Intensives

L/L Research celebrated the beginning of summer by hosting our fifth Channeling Intensive this past weekend, May 28-31, 2009.

The seating for these Intensives is available only for those who have gone through the introductory study, which has now been offered twice in first quarter of 2008. If learning to channel from the Confederation entities is something you feel drawn to do, please write Gary at contact@llresearch.org and he will put you on the waiting list. When we have four or more people signed up, we will hold a third introductory weekend.

Living the Law of One 101: The Choice

Carla's newest and brightest edition to the L/L Research Library, Living the Law of One 101: The Choice, was published this past April!

Written with the intent of creating an entry-level, simple to read report concerning the core principles of the Law of One and Confederation philosophy in general, this book takes the reader through a discussion of Law of One principles such as unity, free will, love, light and polarity. It then works with the Confederation version of the concept that each person has an energy body with seven chakras. It discusses this concept and its implications for the seeker, chakra by chakra. It turns the player into a Player!

To order this book, please visit our online store at <https://store.bring4th.org/>.

Bring4th.org

Carla will be taking a break during the summer from the Live Chat which she has hosted every Saturday in the Bring4th chat rooms . Carla and her husband, Jim McCarty, take the summer off from public meditations, workshops, interviews, speeches, counseling, and weekly live chats.

British Law of One Study Group

Forest Row and Abbots Langley, England
Headed by Ian Bond bond.ian@talktalk.net and
Pupak Haghighi hoopoesong@gmail.com

“Our group meets once a month, usually on a Sunday, we spend part of our time reading parts of ‘Law of One’ material, or some of the Q’uo transcripts. We then share a meal together, which everyone contributes to. If time allows we might go for a walk if it’s not raining too heavily (it’s England here). In the later part of the day we focus on our personal seeking which begins with a period of silent meditation after which we do a round-robin sharing, then ask what is it that we are seeking, each individually and as a group. We call upon and ask the collective group intelligence to address our seeking and usually the response we get through our collective reflection is profound and often satisfying!”

“Meet via videoconferencing software over the internet every Friday night 9 pm EST. Read through, question and discuss approximately one RA session per meeting. Group just started in November of this year. Current participants have all previously met at recent L/L Research Channeling Intensives.”

The Memphis Law of One Study Group

“The Sanctuary”, 6266 Stage Road, Bartlett, TN 38134
Led by Dean Graves deangraves@bellsouth.net and
Carol Crane seacrane@bellsouth.net
(901) 377-6468

“We have public meetings the first Sunday of every month at 2 PM. While the subject matter is centered around the Law of One material, we do diversify the source of our information, using the RA material as the touch stone to put it all into perspective. Individuals with experience in other areas of spiritual study are welcome to share their information with the group. We feel this broadens the understanding of all who attend the meetings.”

Literra Law of One Study Group

Spring Green, WI

Literra@merr.com

“The Spring Green (Wisconsin) Law of One Study Group hosted by Jim and Maxine Pfefferkorn: The monthly meeting (usually for 4 hours on a Sunday afternoon) format starts with a brief meditation, followed by introductions, then opening the floor for discussion of anything attendees wish to explore pertaining to the Law of One, and sometimes Jim will lead us in covering some material from his workbook “The Soul and The Creation, based on the Law of One,” (which is available for $20 plus shipping). We break halfway for some munchies and beverages folks have brought. Socializing during the break is heartwarming and a highlight of the gathering. We reconvene and continue with more discussion and close by gathering in circle and chanting “OM.”

The fellowship has been the most important and fun for the folks who have attended.”
