Carla: I'm writing you to say "Hey" and catch up on Derby Day, 2012, the first Saturday in May, not a day famous in metaphysical but only sporting circles. We Louisville natives tuck into our lives and give the town to the tourists, of which there are boatloads. Derby time signifies the height of spring here, and if we're lucky enough to have a fair day, there is no place lovelier than Kentucky in spring bloom. It is so good to share news and energy with you, dear collaborators in our labor of love!

Homecoming 2012!

With the spring issue of the Gatherings Newsletter, we at L/L Research announce Homecoming, the annual event held in our hometown of Louisville, Kentucky, beginning Friday, August 31 and ending Sunday, September 2. (With optional, additional time on Monday, September 3rd if you'd like to hang out longer.)

Each year seekers dedicated to the study of the Confederation philosophy meet at L/L Research to revel in their shared passions – ranging from discussions regarding whether the first or the second distortion is the best (answer: the first), to strange phenomena experienced along the path (including contact with other beings, distortions of time and space, and Tom Cruise), to moments of laughter, moments of tears, and moments of contemplative silence.

As many a Homecoming veteran will report, it's a rather bonding experience. Most if not all who attend, even among the more introverted and alienated-feeling (which describes most of us), experience the joy of being open and without pretense within a group of seekers who, above and beyond all else, simply accept the other self.

It's as if you love peanut butter, but everyone in your daily life cares not for peanut butter, and doesn't understand your own love, much to your dismay because as far as you're concerned it's the most delicious of foodstuffs. And then you come upon a gathering of peanut butter lovers and aficionados who eat, think, and dream about peanut butter. And your entire being lights up to be in like-hearted company! (← That was a powerful analogy, yes?)

At this year's Homecoming we will do as we did last year, what we call a symposium, perhaps not so accurately named but it sounds so cool and erudite. Using this format, each attendee will be given the opportunity to use a segment of time to present on a topic that is close to their heart. The amount of time will depend on how many opt to present divided by our available time. This usually works out to around 30 minutes.

Presentation is of course not necessary – many choose to participate in the event without presenting – but it is highly encouraged if you have even an inkling of interest. We love hearing from everyone in the circle and find the energy flows, builds, and spirals upward ever so intensely and beautifully when seekers bring something to the table. Options for presentation include but are not limited to:

- Sharing of an important event in your life, be it traumatic or wholly positive
- Sharing of important catalyst in your life, be it a life lesson, question, or recent conundrum
- Coming with a question for the group in order to receive feedback from other seekers
- Finally solving the “What will happen on Dec 21, 2012?” question once-and-for-all with a definitive, brilliant, mind-blowing theory that will be impossible to refute; impossible, because yours is the only right, the only sane, the only possible interpretation.
- Reading a paper you wrote regarding philosophy, metaphysics, or something else close to your heart
- Offering an analysis of The Law of One material
- Pitching your new sitcom, “Everyone Loves Ra” starring Ra (played by Clive Owen)
- 30-minute long guitar solo

The basic criteria is that your presentation be in some way related to spirituality/philosophy/personal growth, and of course not be heinously offensive to other attendees. Within those parameters the possibilities are limitless.

With that, registration is officially open!

If you would like to learn how to register, please click this link and/or send an email to Gary at contact@llresearch.org.

If you would like to discuss the upcoming event with other seekers and perhaps look into the possibility of carpooling and/or room sharing and/or flash mobbing, please visit Homecoming's thread on the Bring4th Forums on in the “Meet-Up Area” forum.

Last year's Homecoming Gathering

Note: We may also spend Saturday evening of the weekend down on L/L's aspiring bio-dynamic farm, Avalon. This is to-be-announced. And we will have extra hang-out time for any seeker who would is not tired of us after Sunday. If you have the extra time, pencil in Monday, September 3rd for more meditation and discussion!

Carla's Update

Carla: On April 15th, 2012, I celebrated the first anniversary of the lumbar spinal surgery from which my valiant body is challenged to recover. Five infections have gotten in the wound, necessitating long months on wound-vacs. It has been a long recovery! Things are beginning to look up, I am thrilled to say. The wound is beginning to get smaller all by itself, just as the wound-vac is supposed to help happen! Yay! Now to get over a case of shingles that is currently gracing my face, from the crown of the head down across the left eyebrow and back into the scalp at the ear. That has temporarily placed me down and out! I shall rejoice when this, too, passes! And it shall, I am certain. Thanks to all of you for your good thoughts and absent healing, your cards and notes and flowers and messages through "contact" Gary. I get them all, and you truly do keep me lifted up and infused with loving and positive energy. Blessings to you all, and thanks so very much!

Who is L/L Research?

L/L Research does not consist of a set number of people, nor do its boundaries stop at the property line of Jim and Carla's house/office in Louisville -- though certainly the center of L/L Research funnels into and expands out of L/L Research's home in Louisville.

Carla, Jim, and their shared life-work are certainly both the heart and the foundation of L/L Research. The full life and body of L/L Research, however, consists of a collaborative, volunteer effort that literally stretches around the globe.

We've never developed any stated criteria for membership of L/L Research, issuing ID cards and assigning titles. Generally when it comes time to ask, "Who is an active member of L/L Research?", the determining/defining characteristics involve commitment of effort and congruency of purpose.

We generally consider the following entities as being "L/L Research" due to their total and lifetime commitment to serving the same cause in unison of purpose:

- Carla R-M. Co-Founder, L/L Research. Primary channel for L/L Research. Instrument of Ra Contact.
- Jim M. Scribe for the Ra Contact. Husband to Carla. Rock on which organization stands.
- Ian J. Creator of and webmaster for the archive website www.llresearch.org.
- Roman V. Close friend since the early 90's. Manages L/L's computers. Serves on L/L's board.
- Gary B. Administrator for L/L Research. Sort of runs the whole operation.
- Steve E. Creator of and webmaster for the community website www.bring4th.org.

Significant & primary volunteers/contributors: our extended family

- Lorena L. Runs the prison ministry, editor of the LOOP Newsletter
- Monica L. Previously head moderator of the Bring4th Forums, now hosts Carla's Q&A radio show
- Tobey W. Creator and webmaster for lawofone.info and head of the relistening project
- Aaron K. Moderator of the Bring4th Forums
- Austin B. Moderator of the Bring4th Forums
- Lana A. Swedish translator, updates L/L's Facebook pages, & serves on the Ra Glossary project
- Joseph D. Coordinator of the Archetypes forum and heads the Ra Glossary project.
- Aysa S. Assists with the prison ministry
- Lynn F. Assists w/prison ministry & currently working towards cataloguing entire LLR Library
- Aaron T. Primary transcriber for L/L Research
- Morris H. Close friend serving on L/L's Board of Directors

Steve T. Close friend serving on L/L's Board of Directors
Steve M. Close friend serving on L/L's Board of Directors
Bill H. Close friend serving on L/L's Board of Directors
Tiffani M. Close friend serving on L/L's Board of Directors

And there are many other volunteers that come and go who serve task-specific needs, including all the translators who render L/L's material into their native language, and the generous donors without whom we would certainly be unable to offer the service we do. (We thank donors and volunteers each year at the bottom of this page: http://www.bring4th.org/donate/.)

L/L Research is a banner that unites this particular labor of love together. What this particular labor of love is would necessitate an essay, but in short and in broad description, this particular effort concerns intense personal love of the channeled messages of the Confederation, coupled with the honest, humble, love-centered effort to live and serve according to the principles contained within that material. More than most philosophies, these principles place total and ultimate power in the hands of the seeker.

L/L Research can be seen as a nexus or vortex of energy, the human element being only the most visible and obvious of its manifestations. This energetic niche is created with the intentions and efforts of those seeking to serve the light in a particular way, and into its vortex are those magnetized to grow and serve according to an undeniable directive that emerges only from within, including many unseen beings and forces who participate in this effort. In essence, "L/L Research" is shorthand for the heart of that energy of intention to seek & to serve with love, light, and power.

Likely all who serve under this banner are wanderers with a connection to assisting in bringing forth the birth of fourth density. And in the larger sense, we are connected with all wanderers and seekers the world over who, by virtue of the depth of their realization of oneness with the Creator, assist in lightening the planetary vibration.

Not a literal depiction of LLR

Upgraded Lawofone.info

In 2004, a longtime student of the Law of One material, Tobey Wheelock, had one question: where do the omitted fragments contained within Book V of the Law of One series fit into the first four books of the same series?

Out of that question emerged a labor of pure love on Tobey's part that endures to the present day and has resulted in the website www.lawofone.info.

Among the many successes achieved in the past eight years, Tobey has created a database of the Law of One material searchable in at least ten different ways, reintegrated the Book V material back into the flow of the 106 sessions, made each Q&A identifiable by number and linked to its own URL, and (with the help of a few dedicated volunteers) produced the first completely accurate transcript of the Ra Contact's 106 sessions, among other accomplishments helpful for the spiritual seeker studying the Law of One material.

Along with many of the seekers who use the Law of One material as a source of guidance, we at L/L Research feel that Tobey's efforts have created the greatest resource for study of that particular body of philosophy. Thusly it is with great pleasure that we at L/L Research announce three new upgrades to the website, including:

Results of the Law of One Relistening Project:

An Explanation of the Different Versions of the Law of One books

<http://lawofone.info/versions.php>

Expanded search options:

<http://lawofone.info/search.php>

The "Results of the Law of One Relistening Project" represents the culmination of years of volunteer effort. It presents an immaculate, exact record of not only what the Ra transcripts actually contain in their entirety, but also details where and how all the puzzle pieces fit together. It is a thing of beauty.

Jim McCarty was particularly excited about Tobey's work. Jim encountered material in the project which he had never seen, including a sentence in Ra's response to one of Jim's questions regarding feeding indigo-ray with the disciplines of the personality.

About the upgrades to the website and everything they represent, Jim has this to say:

Tobey Wheelock's work in relistening to all of the 106 sessions of the Ra contact has produced a delicious fruit that enriches the experience of every reader of the Law of One. Tobey has done the equivalent of giving us another session of the Ra contact in his relistening project as he has added words and phrases inadvertently omitted from the original transcription. And for that massive scholarly work he deserves the undying gratitude of all readers of the Law of One books. Every new word is a gem giving clarity and focus to material that is unique for its precision with words and the depth of its message.

Having the fragments from Book Five placed back in their original order is another blessing for which we have Tobey to thank. Eventually Tobey's ultimate goal is to have all sessions relistened to twice and then lightly edited for clarity. The questions as well as answers will all have been corrected for the precise terminology used in the original sessions so that every nuance intended by those of Ra will be available for all readers to consider. All this work is such a blessing and we have Tobey to thank for his constant devotion to the Law of One material and the Ra contact. So, thank you, Tobey for this wonderful work. We are most grateful to you. – James McCarty

If you see this seeker on the street, please give him a big round of applause for this monumental and endlessly helpful contribution to Law of One study. And then ask him why he is wandering the streets in boxer shorts at night so far from home.

Aaron/Q'uo Dialogues

Would you enjoy hearing a conversation between Q'uo, L/L Research's primary source of channeled information for the past twenty-five years, and Aaron, a discarnate Buddhist master?

During the early 1990's, such an event transpired. The respected and positively oriented Buddhist teacher, Barbara Brodsky, joined Carla on nine different weekends through the first half of the 1990's. During the course of these weekends, Carla and Barbara cooperated in their first experience of co-channeling, each responding to the questions of those present in the circle through their respective sources: Q'uo through Carla, and Aaron through Barbara.

This remarkable conversation between Q'uo, Aaron, and the inquiring seekers is now represented in a beautiful paperback titled, The Aaron/Q'uo Dialogues: An Extraordinary Conversation between Two Spiritual Guides. And as of December 6, 2011, is available from our online store at this link.

From the back cover:

Inspired by the breakthrough channeled series The Law of One, Buddhist teacher Barbara Brodsky sent its author, Carla L. Rueckert, some transcriptions of her own material. Struck by Brodsky's lucid, witty, and fearless channeling, Rueckert invited Brodsky to co-channel a conversation between their spirit teachers, Q'uo and Aaron. Developed from the transcripts of nine weekends of joint channeling, The Aaron/Q'uo Dialogues: An Extraordinary Conversation between Two Spiritual Guides offers teachings from a "positive polarity" perspective, and provides answers to a wide range of spiritual questions, such as:

- "What is the spiritual path and how do we live it?"
- "Why do seemingly bad things happen to people who are trying to follow the dictates of love?"
- "How do we open the heart?"

Offering wise solutions to the major problems that prevent people from living with more awareness and compassion, these conversations offer the spiritual seeker a valuable template for a life of spiritual peace.

Barbara Brodsky is a nationally known Buddhist teacher and the founder of Deep Spring Center. www.deepspring.org.

Carla L. Rueckert is best known for her channeling of the Law of One, also called The Ra Material. www.llresearch.org

"In the Now - Q&A with Carla L. Rueckert" Resumes

After nearly a year of being off-air due to Carla's spinal surgery, we at L/L Research are most happy to announce that Carla has regained sufficient strength to resume "In the Now - Q&A with Carla L. Rueckert", hosted by Monica Leal, beginning on January 27, 2012. This is a weekly internet radio program that airs every Friday at 8:00 pm Eastern Time (GMT - 5) on BlogTalkRadio at www.blogtalkradio.com/llresearch.

Monica Leal, a good friend and the chief moderator of Bring4th.org, fields questions to Carla from spiritual seekers.

The screenshot shows a BlogTalkRadio player interface. At the top, it says "In the Now - Q&A with Carla L. Rueckert" by Carla L. Rueckert in Spirituality, dated Fri, May 11, 2012 08:00PM. There is a "follow" button and a "Call in to speak with the host (646) 595-2294" button. Below the title is a video player showing a portrait of Carla L. Rueckert. To the right of the video player, there is a description: "Carla L. Rueckert, author, mystic, seeker, and primary channel for L/L Research, is interviewed by Monica Leal, head moderator of the Bring4th forums." Below the description, it says "TO SUBMIT QUESTIONS LIVE DURING THE BROADCAST OF THE SHOW" and lists two options: "(1) Access BlogTalkRadio's chat room on the show page www.blogtalkradio.com/llresearch" and "(2) Call (646) 595-2294 to". At the bottom of the player, there is a progress bar showing 00:00 and a volume icon.

You can tune into each broadcast by accessing the show's webpage at www.blogtalkradio.com/llresearch on BlogTalkRadio at the scheduled start time each Friday and listening over your computer, or by calling the phone number below. When you access the show's webpage in the link above, click the "Play/Chat Now" button to begin the show. (Each show will also be freely available in archive form for streaming and download on the show's webpage.)

To get questions to Carla during the broadcast of the show, you can do one of two things:

- To listen to the show using your cell phone or landline, dial 1-646-595-2294. You will be able to hear the show but will be on mute.

If you would like to be unmuted so that you can ask Carla a question live on-air, press the "1" key on your phone at any time. This sends a signal to Monica, the show's host. When there is an opening, Monica will unmute you and address you by area code so that you know you have been unmuted.

- Go to the show's page on BlogTalkRadio at www.blogtalkradio.com/llresearch and join the chat room there.

When the show is not being broadcast, you can submit your questions in one of two ways:

- You can reply to the thread in the "Q&A" forum on Bring4th with your question. Monica will collect them before each show and ask them in the order that they are received.
- You can send Monica a private question via email at magickalmoons@gmail.com.

When submitting questions, please remember that this is a Law of One "Q and A". Try to keep your questions as spiritually oriented as possible. However, Carla will not turn a question away simply because it is not "spiritual". In general, Carla's responses will be spiritually oriented in nature, often utilizing information taken from the channeled material she has produced for L/L Research over the last 35+ years.

Carla wishes to thank each of you who would honor her with the privilege of being able to respond to your questions and discuss topics of a spiritual nature with you. She and Monica look forward to hearing from you!

PS: Tobey Wheelock, creator and webmaster for lawofone.info, and one of three human beings who has heard the entire Ra Contact, Sessions 1 – 106, appeared on Carla and Monica's show on March 30, 2012. The show can be streamed and downloaded from this page.

Archetypes Sub-Forum

We are happy to announce a new addition to the family of forums at Bring4th.org - a sub-forum dedicated to studying what many consider the most difficult, and in some cases impenetrable, topic in the Law of One material: the archetypes of spiritual evolution.

This new sub-forum, located here, rose from the ashes of its predecessor, "Advanced Studies". The former incarnation has since moved onto greener (or bluer) pastures in densities other than our own. There, advanced-level discussion continues unabated on topics such as, "Why did we the Confederation not see that our teachings would be misused and distorted?", and "New drinking game: Drink a shot of golden ambrosia every time we tell them to meditate", and, "Is Charles really in charge?"

The new forum, "The Archetypes of Mind, Body, & Spirit" will be headed by Justlikeyou, a Bring4th member who graciously accepted the invitation to serve as that particular forum's volunteer coordinator. Justlikeyou created - and will maintain - a master thread containing the Table of Contents for the forum, and will see to the forum's organization and on-topic-ness.

Many thanks to Justlikeyou for taking on this honor/duty, and many thanks to Plenum for thoroughly combing the forums to identify archetype-related threads that needed to be moved into the new forum, and old Advanced Studies threads that needed to be moved to other homes in the forum.

Please dig in and enjoy the new forum! And no penalty for double-dipping.

Odds, Ends, and the Interesting

What On Earth? Inside the Crop Circle Mystery - 28 copies of What on Earth? Inside the Crop Circle Mystery is now available in the L/L Research store. Thanks to the generosity of the film's producer, Suzanne Taylor, all proceeds from the sale of the DVD's will go to L/L Research. http://store.bring4th.org/product_info.php?cPath=27&products_id=86

Winner of the Best Feature Documentary Award from the UFO Film Congress. Longtime producer of events and projects having to do with our consciousness and our worldview, filmmaker Suzanne Taylor tracks her interactions, in England, with an international community of visionary artists, scientists, philosophers, mathematicians, educators, writers, and farmers who marvel at crop circles. The superstars of the film are the circles, which remain an unexplained global phenomenon that has puzzled humanity for centuries -- the photography is awe-inspiring. Evidence is presented that challenges the idea that all the glyphs are made by people, and the motives of hoaxers, who make some of the formations, is a subject for speculation. In addition to the feature length documentary, the DVD contains outstanding bonus material: commentary by researchers about their favorite circles; an alternative opening that delivers more information about the filmmaker; a moving eulogy about Pulitzer Prize winner, John Mack, a Harvard psychiatry professor who was enamored with the circles and is in the film; a music video of a crop circle song that's in the soundtrack of the movie; and a gorgeous montage of circles.

You Can Q'quote Us On That – Using unsalted butter, all-purpose flour, brown sugar, water, oil, and Granny-smith apples, Steve, Bring4th's webmaster, locked himself in his Bring4th laboratory to produce the ultimate homemade pie. Toiling and laboring for days on end, he discovered that his talent is not in pie making.

Re-envisioning his project, he took the same ingredients and built something far better, something that will continue to serve, inspire, and fuel the journey long after the last crumbs of the pie have been digested. Steve created the "Daily Q'quote".

Each day, Bring4th will feature a new "Q'quote" - a hybrid of the word "quote" and "Q'uo" - on its home page just below the Bring4th News section. For those of you who may not be familiar with the words of Q'uo, they are from the primary source channeled by L/L Research since 1986. Their channeled words can be located on the L/L Research Transcript Library page at http://www.llresearch.org/transcripts/transcripts_toc_year.aspx. The featured Q'quote always includes a link back to the session from which it was excerpted.

Filling in these Q'quotes is a longtime friend and volunteer, Fox. She has amassed a collection of Q'quotes that have moved and inspired her during the course of readings. Fox continues to read and collect, and will keep an eye to those excerpts that feel like they have the most universal appeal. She thanks everyone for the opportunity to be of service in this way.

Our thanks be to Steve and Fox for making a daily Q'quote a daily reality!

Law of One in Spanish completed – As of August 7, 2011, it is our great pleasure to announce the completion of the Spanish translation of the Law of One books!

Almost two years ago on August 28, 2009, our good friend Pilar, living and working in Spain, committed to the giant volunteer task of translating the Law of One books into her native language. Living a busy life of work, duties, obligations, and the many tasks that fill our days, she set forth translating the conversation between Ra and Don Elkins session by session, week by week.

We are proud to share her completed work with you and all Spanish-speaking seekers across the globe who may be aided by the Law of One. The final version is not yet published to the archive website, but will soon be available from the home page of <http://www.llresearch.org>.

Our greatest gratitude to Pilar for her diligent, unceasing, professional work in making the Law of One available to second-most spoken language on planet Earth. :)

Note: Work is underway to translate Book V into Russian, and (we hope) to translate all of the Law of One books into German.

Forum Team Restructuring – Our Chief Moderator of the past three years, Monica Leal, resigned her post in order to give energy where it's needed most: with her family, her home, and her business. Subsequently she shifted her volunteer efforts for L/L Research to serving as Carla's host for the weekly radio program, "In the Now – Q&A with Carla L. Rueckert".

If you would like to take a moment to thank Monica for the freely given hard work that has so compassionately guided Bring4th through its first years, visit Monica's thread.

As a result of Monica's resignation, the Forum Team was restructured. Gary took over as head moderator and installed a Jacuzzi in the forum "Olio", and an ice bar in the "Life on Planet Earth" forum.

Additionally, the forums picked up the assistance of Austin, a new moderator who together with Aaron K. and Gary make an unstoppable moderator force, what basically amounts to a team of superheroes, kind of like the current "Avengers". Almost.

A French-translation website – Amis lecteurs francophones, les traductions en français des messages reçus en channeling par Carla: «Ra. The Law of One. An Humble Messenger» (Les Transmissions Ra – La Loi Une) et ceux d'autres entités de la Confédération des planètes au service du Créateur infini sont à votre disposition sur le site <http://users.skynet.be/fa415878/index.htm>. (Humbles messagers, grands messages: Ra, Q'uo, Latwii, Hatonn. Le travail (en fait je devrais plutôt dire: ce grand plaisir) se poursuit, lentement mais sûrement.

Dear French-speaking friends, if you are interested to read in French the transcripts of the «Ra Material» (Law of One) and other transcripts of messages channeled through Carla, you are kindly invited to visit the site <http://users.skynet.be/fa415878/index.htm>.

L/L's Public Meditations – With Carla still focused on recovery, the L/L Research public meditations remain suspended at Jim and Carla's. In the meantime one of our closest friends and the longest running meditation member, Roman V., continues to hold meditations two Saturdays of every month at his house in the same spirit as L/L Research. If anyone is local to Louisville and interested in attending one of Roman's meditations, drop us a line and we'll connect you!

L/L's Annual Fundraiser – L/L Research ran out of financial gas by the end of 2011, the limited funds in the bank account dwindling to steam and vapors. We issued our annual fundraiser notice and the support returned was astounding. Thanks to many small donations and a few hefty donations, L/L Research raised approximately $40,000! Enough to see us through at least the first half if not longer of 2012. Our deepest gratitude to those who keep us afloat.

Personal Counseling - Carla continues to remain unavailable for personal counseling (& channeling) services due to her ongoing health challenges, but an equally helpful resource in this regard are the services of our good friend, Dr. Scott Mandelker. Of his work, Scott writes,

My counseling style is eclectic and transpersonal, based on 30 years of Buddhist meditation and paranormal experience, 20 years private practice, an MA in Integral Counseling and PhD in EastWest Psychology (www.ciis.edu).

My approach is shaped by the Law of One series as the basis for seminars in Japan and US since the mid1990's, study groups in San Francisco, and Skype classes for the past year. For more info, please see the following:

<http://www.youtube.com/user/TWSMandelker> [~60 Ra class videos]
<http://talkswithscottmandelker.com> [Ra Compilation PDF files]

My sessions are focused dialogue on personal concerns, spiritual questions and the Wanderer's awakening process. I've nearly "heard it all," and give an open mind and heart to receive, clarify and mirror your lifejourney.

Main counseling themes include: • Issues of Wanderers and Walkins, adjustment to 3D society • Paranormal experience: OBE, higherdimensional contact, dreams, NDE • Lifepurpose & mission, Higher Self programming and lifelessons • Personal & family karma, body illness symbolism, crisis & illness • Low selfesteem, selfdoubt, social alienation, issues of adjustment • Longterm relationship conflict, sexual blockage, personal goals definition • Meditation training, 7chakra assessment, mind/body/spirit integration, questions

Please contact me at scott@scottmandelker.com to arrange a 1hour Skype session (audio only, no cam needed); telephone work is no longer available, as I'm now living in Asia. Fees are by sliding scale (USD $75 - 120) at your choice, with lower rates available. Short and longterm work are both possible — please let me know if you're interested. All peace and blessings to you!

Bon Voyage!

Carla: We hope you'll come see us just as soon as we put out the welcome mat, and meanwhile, we hope you are having an engaged and intense, powerful and peaceful time of it with your spiritual walk this spring. We're so glad and blessed that our paths have crossed yours, and that we may enjoy this time in the cyber-ethers together!

Speaking for Jim, Gary and all the many others that continually put in long hours volunteering at L/L Research and bring4th.org, I bid you all our love/light!

“Our group meets once a month, usually on a Sunday, we spend part of our time reading parts of ‘Law of One’ material, or some of the Q’uo transcripts. We then share a meal together, which everyone contributes to. If time allows we might go for a walk if it’s not raining too heavily (it’s England here). In the later part of the day we focus on our personal seeking which begins with a period of silent meditation after which we do a round-robin sharing, then ask what is it that we are seeking, each individually and as a group. We call upon and ask the collective group intelligence to address our seeking and usually the response we get through our collective reflection is profound and often satisfying!"

"Meet via videoconferencing software over the internet every Friday night 9 pm EST. Read through, question and discuss approximately one RA session per meeting. Group just started in November of this year. Current participants have all previously met at recent L/L Research Channeling Intensives."

Meditation Meeting of Downtown Roanoke

Roanoke, Virginia <http://www.peace-spiritual-center.org/>
Led by Rick Cook rickycook21@hotmail.com
Group administrator is Brian McConnell roanokemeditation@gmail.com

"The group meets every Thursday afternoon at 5:30 p.m. at the YWCA, 605 5th Street, SW, Roanoke, VA.

Meetings include readings, group meditations, sharing of experiences, and plenty of laughter. The goal is to help participants who want to reach a service-to-others polarity, then take it from there. There is a varied reading list from the world's spiritual teachings, with the closest thing to textbooks being L/L Research's Law of One books.

Downtown Roanoke is a quick drive down I-581 off I-81, which makes us handy to travelers along the Eastern intermountain route, coming cross-country on I-64, driving the Blue Ridge Parkway, or visiting Virginia Tech. Drop-ins are encouraged!"

The Memphis Law of One Study Group

Republic Coffee, 2924 Walnut Grove Rd, Memphis, TN 38111
Led by Dean Graves deangraves@bellsouth.net
(901).590 – 1578

"We have public meetings the first Sunday of every month at 2 PM. While the subject matter is centered around the Law of One material, we do diversify the source of our information, using the RA material as the touch stone to put it all into perspective. Individuals with experience in other areas of spiritual study are welcome to share their information with the group. We feel this broadens the understanding of all who attend the meetings."

Literra Law of One Study Group

Spring Green, WI
Literra@merr.com

“The Spring Green (Wisconsin) Law of One Study Group hosted by Jim and Maxine Pfefferkorn: The monthly meeting (usually for 4 hours on a Sunday afternoon) format starts with a brief meditation, followed by introductions, then opening the floor for discussion of anything attendees wish to explore pertaining to the Law of One, and sometimes Jim will lead us in covering some material from his workbook “The Soul and The Creation, based on the Law of One,” (which is available for $20 plus shipping). We break halfway for some munchies and beverages folks have brought. Socializing during the break is heartwarming and a highlight of the gathering. We reconvene and continue with more discussion and close by gathering in circle and chanting “OM.”
